

Summer/Autumn Masterclasses

Leading With Empathy

Empathy has never been more crucial; not only in the world we live in but in how we lead others. This masterclass will focus on:

- Neuroscience; what does neuroscience tell us about what our brain needs and how we can use this to lead our teams effectively
- Being present and clear about your purpose and values whilst aligning your team
- Why compassion is such an integral part of being a great Leader

Dates:

September 13th 12.30pm – 2.30pm

How to Lead in a Hybrid Model

The world of work has changed over the last 12 months for many of us. We are now emerging from the pandemic into a new way of working, a different mindset and a focus of how we manage and lead others virtually.

This masterclass covers:

- What aspects of being an authentic leader do you need to 'dial up' in the hybrid model
- What aspects do we need to consider that have not been evident in the past
- How do you define your boundaries as a leader
- How do you lead your team to promote greater engagement and productivity considering the individual differences and employee preferences to hybrid working

Dates:

September 21st 12.30pm – 2.30pm
